

View showing the proposed new accessible entrance to the church, which will include an accessible WC and small lobby space to accommodate buggies and turning space for wheelchairs. New glazed doors provide plenty of daylight to help create a welcoming entrance. Materials could include stone, and a zinc roof which can be used on shallow pitch roofs.