

View showing the proposed boiler room at the base of the tower with railings between the boiler space and west window of the south aisle, which is our preferred option.