

View showing the proposed removal of rear pews, servery with new screen below organ, door to vestry with glazing, storage enclosure in the corner behind the south door and steps and the font repositioned to be on the centreline of the south doors and war memorial. Materials will include oak joinery, and stone flags to the floor where the pews are removed.