

Risen Christ,
you filled your disciples
with boldness and fresh hope:
strengthen us to proclaim your risen life
and fill us with your peace,
to the glory of God the Father.

Or

Almighty Father,
who in your great mercy gladdened the disciples
with the sight of the risen Lord:
give us such knowledge of his presence with us,
that we may be strengthened and sustained by his risen life
and serve you continually
in righteousness and truth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING Acts 2.14a, 36-41

Peter stood with the eleven apostles and spoke in a loud and clear voice to the crowd:

‘Everyone in Israel should then know for certain that God has made Jesus both Lord and Christ, even though you put him to death on a cross.’

When the people heard this, they were very upset. They asked Peter and the other apostles, ‘Friends, what shall we do?’

Peter said, ‘Turn back to God! Be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, so that your sins will be forgiven. Then you will be given the Holy Spirit. This promise is for you and your children. It is for everyone our Lord God will choose, no matter where they live.’

Peter told them many other things as well. Then he said, ‘I beg you to save yourselves from what will happen to all these evil people.’ On that day about three thousand believed his message and were baptized.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL Luke 24:13-35

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

That same day two of Jesus’ disciples were going to the village of Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem. As they were talking and thinking about what had happened, Jesus came near and started walking along beside them. But they did not know who he was.

Jesus asked them, ‘What were you talking about as you walked along?’

The two of them stood there looking sad and gloomy. Then the one named Cleopas asked Jesus, ‘Are you the only person from Jerusalem who didn’t know what was happening there these last few days?’

‘What do you mean?’ Jesus asked. They answered:

‘Those things that happened to Jesus from Nazareth. By what he did and said he showed that he was a powerful prophet, who pleased God and all the people. Then the chief priests and our leaders had him arrested and sentenced to die on a cross. We had hoped that he would be the one to set Israel free! But it has already been three days since all this happened.’

‘Some women in our group surprised us. They had gone to the tomb early in the morning, but did not find the body of Jesus. They came back, saying that they had seen a vision of angels who told them that he is alive. Some men from our group went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said. But they didn’t see Jesus either.’

Then Jesus asked the two disciples, ‘Why can’t you understand? How can you be so slow to believe all that the prophets said? Didn’t you know that the Messiah would have to suffer before he was given his glory?’ Jesus then explained everything written about himself in the Scriptures, beginning with the Law of Moses and the Books of the Prophets.

When the two of them came near the village where they were going, Jesus seemed to be going farther. They begged him, ‘Stay with us! It’s already late, and the sun is going down.’ So Jesus went into the house to stay with them.

After Jesus sat down to eat, he took some bread. He blessed it and broke it. Then he gave it to them. At once they knew who he was, but he disappeared. They said to each other, ‘When he talked with us along the road and explained the Scriptures to us, didn’t it warm our hearts?’ So they got up at once and returned to Jerusalem.

The two disciples found the eleven apostles and the others gathered together. And they learned from the group that the Lord was really alive and had appeared to Peter. Then the disciples from Emmaus told what happened on the road and how they knew he was the Lord when he broke the bread.

At the end of the Gospel we say:

Praise be to you O Christ

AFTER COMMUNION

Living God,
your Son made himself known to his disciples
in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith,
that we may see him in all his redeeming work;
who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever.
